

May 4, 2015

Selectmen: Richard Carver, Linda Post, David Matthews

Present: Anna Mason, Josh Wellman (DMJ Waste)

4:00 PM Assessors Meeting

Tom Edwards (Assessor) has not heard back from the State regarding the six personal properties he resubmitted.

Tom mentioned that we can claim 105% value on the 2015 State Valuation form.

Wanted to know what the Selectmen thought?

Tom also brought up personal property. He got a quote from Trio regarding the personal property program, it cost $2100.00 and $500.00 a year support, should we put it in the budget? Tom Edwards wanted to know what the Selectmen thought about doing away with taxing lobster traps?

No Action was taken.

4:15 PM Assessors Meeting ended and Selectmen's meeting begins.

Josh Wellman from DMJ was present with the new contract for 2015 to 2017.

Linda Post made a motion to accept the new contract for DMJ Waste as presented ($78.00 per ton & $250.00 per trip). Dave Matthews seconded it. All in Favor

Old Business: Waterfront

Dave Matthews made a motion to engage Mr. Fred Bucklin to do the appraisal of Map 11, Lot 33 for the price of $1500.00 that will be taken out of legal funds.

Linda Post seconded it. All in Favor.

Linda Post asked Anna Mason if Rodney Mason (Ship to Shore) would call her about the Easement that was presented to him and schedule a meeting.

Dangerous Buildings: Dangerous Buildings were tabled until next meeting for an updated list.

There were two Snowplow Bids submitted for the 2015 to 2019 season.
